COMES NOW RLI INSURANCE COMPANY (“RLI”), Plaintiff, in the above-styled action, seeking equitable and declaratory relief and shows this Court the following:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. RLI files this action to obtain a judicial determination and declaration as to the parties’ rights and obligations under a Miscellaneous Professional Liability Policy issued by RLI to INNOVATIVE EMPLOYER SOLUTIONS, LLC (IES) for the policy period January 1, 2020 to January 1, 2021 (the Policy).

2. RLI’s recent investigation has revealed that prior to applying for insurance with RLI, IES was aware that one of its vendors was arrested and charged with committing a $70 million bank fraud, which ultimately resulted in IES’ clients’ payroll tax monies not getting processed. As a result, IES’ clients received delinquency notices, penalties, and fines. Subsequent to the Policy incepting, and the same day IES was sent a Change Endorsement providing coverage for all Prior Acts, IES submitted its first notice of the Claim relating to the non-payment of its clients’ tax monies.

RLI vs. IES
Complaint

3. An actual and justiciable controversy has arisen and now exists relating to the parties' rights, duties, and obligations under the Policy. RLI seeks a declaratory judgment that: (a) RLI is entitled to rescind the Policy void ab initio because of material and intentional false statements in the Application for the Policy; (b) RLI is entitled to rescind the Change Endorsement to the Policy void ab initio because of material and intentional false statements in the Application and Disclosure form; and in the alternative that (c) there is no duty to defend nor a duty to indemnify IES under the Policy in connection with a Claim from IES' clients relating to the non-payment of payroll taxes.

15. Upon information and belief, IES provides certain payroll solutions to clients pursuant to an agreement entitled Payroll Processing Tax Filing & Pre-Authorized Payment Services Agreements ("Payroll Services Agreements"), a sample of which is attached hereto as Exhibit "A".

16. The Payroll Services Agreements provide, in part, "PAYROLL MEDICS hereby warrants and promises to perform the Payroll Tax Filing Services for the Client according to the terms and conditions set forth herein within the time provided for by the Taxing Authorities unless prevented from doing so by causes and conditions beyond the reasonable control of PAYROLL MEDICS." Exhibit A.

17. The Payroll Services Agreements provide in part, “if PAYROLL MEDICS makes an error or omission, which results in assessment by any taxing authority against the CLIENT, which results in penalties and interest, PAYROLL MEDICS will pay the assessed penalties and/or interest.” Exhibit A.

18. Upon information and belief, IES utilized one or more third-party companies, including MyPayrollHR and/or Cloud Payroll, LLC (“CloudPayroll”), for the purpose of debiting and depositing client tax funds as an interim step before they were paid to tax authorities when due by a centralized corporate tax return.

19. Upon information and belief, IES entered into a licensing agreement with CloudPayroll on October 8, 2018, permitting IES to use CloudPayroll’s cloud-based software for IES’ clients’ payroll administration, payroll tax processing, and related ACH transfers and cash management.

20. Upon information and belief, IES began using the CloudPayroll systems for its clients’ payroll solutions on January 1, 2019.

21. Upon information and belief, the CEO and/or principal of MyPayrollHR and CloudPayroll, Michael Mann, misappropriated corporate funds, including but not limited to certain payroll tax deposits.

RLI vs. IES

24. Upon information and belief, on or about September 6, 2019, IES was informed that Michael Mann had been arrested for charges related to a fraud scheme and that CloudPayroll was closed effectively immediately.

25. Upon information and belief, on or about September 18, 2019, IES sent an email to certain clients notifying them that they “may have noticed tax settling into your account that may not have been swept,” and that it would be “auditing each client’s obligations and ‘debiting the appropriate amount for collection during this short migration period.” See Email String, attached as Exhibit B at P. 3 (redacted for privacy).

26. On or about September 18, 2019, IES began receiving emails from clients providing notice that certain payroll tax payments had not been swept from their accounts.

27. On or about September 18, 2019, Michael Murray of IES received electronic correspondences from a client (hereinafter the “Client”) which indicated that taxes had not been swept from its account. Exhibit B at P. 1.

28. IES received an email from the Client on September 20, 2019, which states in relevant part, the following:

I need to have our taxes up to date immediately. In addition to the problem from our last payroll (which you were obviously not paying taxes on time, as they had not been withdrawn from our account), I now see that you did not make at least 1 required tax payment for the PREVIOUS payroll.

I need all of our required tax payments paid by Monday.

See Email String, attached as Exhibit C at P. 2 (redacted for privacy).

29. An email sent by the Client on September 24, 2019, states in relevant part, the following:

I need to talk with you about getting the taxes for the August 30th payroll paid. I have spoken with our insurance agent, [REDACTED], about our coverage. I assume you have also spoken with your insurance company. I understand that it is up in the air regarding how much money in the Mypayroll account will be recoverable for it will therefore take some time to find out how much money is missing. I understand that, but I also know that we are ultimately responsible for getting our payroll taxes and payroll withholdings paid in a timely manner. I want to talk about [REDACTED] paying the $7,500 in taxes a second time so late payments fees (to say nothing of potential tax liens) are completely out of the picture.

My concern with doing this is getting recovery on our original payment and having that automatically given to the various tax agencies instead of back to us.

Please let me know what you think about doing it this way.

30. Upon information and belief, on or before September 25, 2019, IES reported the alleged fraud involving CloudPayroll to the IRS and FBI.

31. On or about September 26, 2019, IES submitted a Tax Violation Complaint to the South Carolina Department of Revenue (SCDOR) that admitted the CEO of a New York payroll company [CloudPayroll] was arrested and charged in a $70 million bank fraud scheme and had “prevented withholding tax deposits from being made to the SCDOR” and requesting that “SCDOR recognize this unique situation and work with Payroll Medics and our clients to forgive and/or avoid penalties, late fees, fines, liens and collection efforts as a result of this admitted fraud.” See Email Correspondence attached as Exhibit D (redacted).

32. On or about October 23, 2019, IES received an email from an additional client which stated in relevant part:

Payroll medics is responsible for filing our payroll taxes every quarter. Third quarter taxes were due on October 15. Are you telling me that you guys did NOT file my quarterly payroll taxes by October 15th, 2019? I understand you were not part of that conversation but can you find out?

See, Email Chain, attached as Exhibit E (redacted).

34. On December 2, 2019, an additional client sent an email which states in relevant part:

Yes, you can deduct the missed [amount] however, I would like an explanation for the missed sweep. You have to agree that this would be very concerning to a business owner that is trusting Payroll Medics with our payroll. I am paying an accountant to confirm that your company is providing the payroll services I am paying you for.

Could you please also check and see if the credit that you promised me for payroll services in November was given or let me know when that will be credited to my account?

See Email String, attached as Exhibit F (redacted).

35. On December 12, 2019, the Client sent an email which states, in relevant part:

I do not see that [my third quarter returns] were filed when I sign in to my SC Department of Revenue account however. Also, I do not see the 9/5 deposit of $1,175.61 listed on the return for the SC withholding.

36. On December 20, 2019, the Client sent an email which states, in relevant part:

I STILL show the quarterlies as not being filed on the SC Dept of Revenue. I still don't see the $1,175.61 payment either. I did see another notice form them giving an 'estimated' assessment. I have attached a screenshot.

51. On February 17, 2020, IES received an email from another client which alleges that the payments were “your responsibility as our payroll company.” See Email Chain, attached as Exhibit O (redacted).

52. On February 20, 2020, IES received an email from the Client which states in relevant part: “Just as I am responsible to the IRS and DOR to make these payments, you are responsible to us. His bank, Pioneer Bank in Albany, NY froze all of his and his company’s bank accounts.

For Payroll Medics specifically, his actions caused the inability to access the various funds which we had stored in a Pioneer bank account for the amount other taxes. As a subsidiary of Mann’s company, our client tax funds were deposited in his account as an interim step to being paid in to tax authorities when due by a centralized corporate tax team.

Payroll Medics is now facing claims from clients who must re-pay the stolen tax, which was misappropriated by Michael Mann, CEO of Cloud Payroll, LLC.

117. RLI did rely on the representations of IES on the Disclosure.

118. RLI is prepared to return the additional premium paid for the Change Endorsement upon an order from this Court granting rescission of the Change Endorsement.

119. If the Court does not rescind the Policy, RLI is entitled to a declaration that RLI is entitled to rescind the Change Endorsement.

120. Therefore, RLI is entitled to a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to rescind the Change Endorsement and a declaration that the Change Endorsement is void ab initio.

COUNT III

(Declaratory Judgment - Wrongful Acts Occurred Outside of the Policy Period)

121. The Plaintiff incorporates all prior paragraphs of this Complaint as if re-stated herein.

122. There is no coverage under the Policy because the alleged Wrongful Acts occurred prior to the Retroactive Date.

123. The Policy provides as follows:

1. INSURING AGREEMENTS

- a. The Insurer will pay on behalf of the Insured, Claim Expenses and Damages in excess of the Deductible that the Insured shall become legally obligated to pay because of Claims first made against the Insured during the Policy Period and first reported to the Insurer during the Policy Period, the Automatic Extended Reporting Period, or if applicable, during the Extended Reporting Period, for Wrongful Acts, committed on or subsequent to the Retroactive Date and before the end the end of this Policy Period, to which this insurance applies.

Exhibit V.

124. The Policy definition of “Claim” includes “a. a demand for money as compensation for a Wrongful Act.” and further provides, “A Claim shall be considered made when any Insured or the Insured’s legal representative or agent first receives notice of the claim.”

Exhibit V.

125. The Policy provides the following definition for “Wrongful Act”:

“Wrongful Act” means any actual or alleged error, omission or negligent act, committed solely in the rendering of or failure to render Professional Services by an Insured or any person or entity for which the Insured is legally liable. Wrongful Act also means any actual or alleged error, omission or negligent act committed solely in the rendering of or failure to render Professional Services by an Insured or any person or entity for which the Insured is legally liable and that results in Personal Injury.

Exhibit V.

126. RLI has brought this action seeking a declaratory judgment that it is entitled to rescind the Policy, or in the alternative, to rescind the Change Endorsement.

127. The Policy only provides coverage for Claims for Wrongful Acts “committed on or subsequent to the Retroactive Date.”

128. Because the Change Endorsement was procured by fraud and should be rescinded and void ab initio, the Retroactive Date of the RLI Policy is January 1, 2020.

129. The alleged Wrongful Acts in the Claim as set forth in the Loss Notice, first occurred during the third and fourth quarter of 2019, and prior to January 1, 2020.

130. The missed payments, late payments, and related interest and penalties were caused by Wrongful Acts committed prior to the Retroactive Date of the Policy.

131. Therefore, RLI is entitled to a declaration no coverage for the Claim set forth in the Loss Notice and that RLI has no duty to defend or indemnify IES against the Claim.

COUNT IV
(Declaratory Judgment – No Damages)

132. The Plaintiff incorporates all prior paragraphs of this Complaint as if re-stated herein.

133. In the alternative, if the Policy and/or Change Endorsement are not rescinded, there is no coverage for the Claim as set forth in the Loss Notice under the Policy for the following separate independent reason.

134. The Policy defines Damages as follows:

“Damages” means monetary judgments or settlements, including but not limited to compensatory damages, prejudgment and post-judgment interest that an Insured is legally obligated to pay, and punitive or exemplary damages to the extent such damages are insurable under applicable law, but shall not mean or include any of the following:

- a. that portion of any multiplied damage award that exceeds the amount multiplied, criminal or civil fines or penalties imposed by law, taxes, matters deemed uninsurable under the law pursuant to which this Policy shall be construed; or*
- b. the return, reduction or dispute over any fees, deposits, expenses, costs, or commissions charged or collected by the Insured.*

For the purpose of determining the insurability of punitive damages or exemplary damages, the laws of the jurisdiction most favorable to the insurability of such damages shall control that determination, provided that such jurisdiction has a substantial relationship to the Named Insured or to the Claim giving rise to such punitive damages and exemplary damages.

Exhibit V.

RLI vs. IES
Complaint
Page 22.

135. The Claim as set forth in the Loss Notice provides that IES' clients are seeking re-payment of the stolen tax money which was misappropriated by Michael Mann. Exhibit Z.

136. The Client emails received by IES also request payment of late fees and penalties.

137. There is no coverage for any alleged Damages related to the Claim that fall outside the Policy's definition of Damages.

138. Therefore, RLI is entitled to a declaration of no coverage for the Claim set forth in the Loss Notice and that RLI has no duty to defend or indemnify IES against the Claim.

COUNT V (Declaratory Judgment - Exclusion re Known Prior Circumstances)

139. The Plaintiff incorporates all prior paragraphs of this Complaint as if re-stated herein.

140. In the alternative, if the Policy and/or Change Endorsement are not rescinded, there is no coverage for the Claim as set forth in the Loss Notice under the Policy for the following separate independent reason.

141. There is no coverage under the Policy because IES was aware of a prior Circumstance prior to the Policy Period.

142. The Policy sets forth the following exclusion:

5. EXCLUSIONS

The Insurer shall not be liable for Damages or Claim Expenses in connection with any Claim arising out of, directly or indirectly resulting from or in consequence of or in any way involving:

- e. any Circumstance of which any partner, member, director, or officer of the Insured was aware prior to the effective date of this Policy and could have reasonably expected to give rise to a Claim; or any future Claim or litigation based upon or derived from the same or essentially the same Circumstance; provided that, if this Policy is a renewal of a Policy or Policies previously issued by the Insurer and if the coverage provided by the Insurer was continuous from the effective date of the first such other Policy to the effective date of this Policy, the reference in this

Exclusion to “effective date” will mean the effective date of the first Policy under which the Insurer first provided continuous coverage to an Insured.

Exhibit V.

143. The Policy defines a “Circumstance” as “any fact, situation, even or occurrence that could reasonably be the basis for a Claim.” Exhibit V.

144. As set forth hereinabove, IES had knowledge of a Circumstance that is the subject of the Loss Notice prior to the effective date of the Policy. Exhibits B, C, D, E, F and G.

145. The Policy Period is from 12:01 A.M. on 01/01/2020 to 12:01 A.M. on 01/01/2021.

Exhibit V.

146. The effective date of the policy is January 1, 2020. Exhibit V.

147. Prior to January 1, 2020, IES was aware that its client’s various payroll obligations during the third and fourth quarters of 2019 had not been timely paid. Exhibits B, C, D, E, F and G.

148. Prior to January 1, 2020, IES was aware that certain clients had been assessed penalties for late payroll tax payments.

149. Prior to January 1, 2020, IES had submitted a Tax Violation Complaint to the SCDOR requesting abatements due to the $70 million dollar tax fraud scheme. Exhibit D.

150. Based on the foregoing, including but not limited to those described herein above, a reasonable person would have been on notice that a Circumstance could have reasonably expected to give rise to a Claim prior to January 1, 2020.

151. RLI is entitled to a declaration of no coverage for the Claim set forth in the Loss Notice and that RLI has no duty to defend or indemnify IES against the Claim.

COUNT VI
(Declaratory Judgment - Tax Monies Exclusion)

152. The Plaintiff incorporates all prior paragraphs of this Complaint as if re-stated herein.

153. In the alternative, if the Policy and/or Change Endorsement are not rescinded, there is no coverage for the Claim as set forth in the Loss Notice under the Policy for the following separate independent reason.

154. The Policy includes an Endorsement Entitled “Human Resources Consulting Services (II) which provides the following:

2. Section 5 EXCLUSIONS, is amended to include the following:

5. EXCLUSIONS

The Insurer shall not be liable for Damages or Claim Expenses in connection with any Claim arising out of, directly or indirectly resulting from or in consequence of or in any way involving:

Exhibit V.

155. The Claim set forth in the Loss Notice is a Claim for the payment of tax monies.

156. The Claim set forth in the Loss Notice is excluded by the above referenced endorsement.
